

SUMMER DAY CAMP

YMCA Summer Day Camp will provide a fun, safe and caring place for your children during Summer Break. Parents can work without worrying and children are not left alone. Kids will have a variety of fun learning experiences while being with and meeting new friends.

Summer Day Camp will feature weekly themes, arts & crafts, sports, swimming, Friday Field Trips, and fun for all ages. By maintaining a staff ratio of 15 to 1, our well trained staff is able to provide your child with structured, meaningful activities that promote the YMCA values of CARING, HONESTY, RESPECT AND RESPONSIBILITY.

"WHY" PICK THE Y FOR SUMMER DAY CAMP?

FREE FOOD: Breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack are provided at no additional charge.

SWIMMING: Campers will swim on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Hibberd pool.

KIDZLIT READING PROGRAM: This reading program reinforces age appropriate reading techniques learned during the school year. Activities that relate to the lessons learned through the weekly reading material will be incorporated throughout the rest of the week.

WEEKLY THEMES: Each week will have it's own theme. Weekly activities will focus on that theme.

FRIDAY FIELD TRIPS: Campers will travel to local places of interest every Friday. We will attempt to plan trips that are free however, we plan to take a couple of out of town trips that will have admission fees. Admission fees will be charged to campers as applicable.
